PRELUDE "COME, THOU ALMIGHTY KING" NIBBY PRIEST, ORGANIST

RESPONSIVE READING Humility

Leader: Humility is a strange quality; unlike joy, love, kindness or any of those typically sweet qualities Christians are supposed to value, humility is hard.

PEOPLE: True humility consists not of feeling humiliation or being humiliated by others. Nor has it to do with false-modesty, or low-self-esteem.

Leader: Humility is more about looking for God, and being aware of just how holy God is. It is about bearing in mind, regardless of our earthly success, just how almighty God is. And holding in that awareness, a sense of our own smallness, unholiness and frailty.

ALL: We humble ourselves before you, and before our brothers and sisters, O God. We praise your holiness. And acknowledge your greatness. We put our own interests aside and in humility regard others as better than ourselves. Help us, O God, to let your mind be our mind and our words and deeds be yours. Amen.

Thank you, Matthew North and Carol Woodard for joining the Wednesday night dinner team.

Summer Fest
Ice Cream Social
Sunday, August 7
2:00 - 4:00PM

The community is invited. Please invite someone, too. Homemade ice cream, cookies and monetary donations welcome. Please see Jerry Neel, Mary Dunham or Phyllis McElwain.

Continuing with our Sunday Bible Study Mission to collect "Biblically inspired food for Community Outreach", the food we would like for you to donate is mentioned in Genesis 25:34. "Then Jacob gave Esau some bread and some lentil stew." Next Sunday, August 7, the food collected will be cans of "lentils"--beans of all kinds.

Dr. Hobbs sermon subject for August 7, 2011 will be "Easing the Burden". The read ahead scripture is Matthew 11:25-30.
